

What does learning look like at PenrhosAve?

At Penrhos Ave PRU, KS4 learning focuses on helping young people re-engage with education, build confidence and prepare for life beyond school. Our curriculum combines the Curriculum for Wales, opportunities to pursue GCSE qualifications, and the King's Trust Achieve Programme to ensure each learner follows a meaningful and personalised pathway.

At Penrhos Ave PRU, KS4 learning focuses on helping young people re-engage with education, build confidence and prepare for life beyond school. Our curriculum combines the Curriculum for Wales, opportunities to pursue GCSE qualifications, and the King's Trust Achieve Programme to ensure each learner follows a meaningful and personalised pathway. Curriculum for Wales & GCSE Pathways

Learners study a broad curriculum aligned to the Curriculum for Wales, developing the Four Purposes while working towards recognised accreditation. Pupils are supported to pursue GCSEs, Entry Level qualifications and other tailored accreditation depending on their needs, strengths and future goals. Small classes and adaptive teaching ensure learners make progress at a pace that suits them.

What does learning look like at PenrhosAve?

King's Trust Achieve Programme

KS4 pupils also take part in the King's Trust Achieve Programme, which builds confidence, teamwork, communication and practical life skills. The programme includes digital skills, enterprise projects, personal finance and real-life problem-solving activities, helping learners gain recognised units and boost readiness for further education, training or employment.

Day-to-Day Learning at KS4

Supportive, small-group teaching

Practical, hands-on tasks linked to real-life skills

Opportunities to gain GCSEs and additional qualifications

Daily wellbeing support and restorative approaches

Pathway planning for college, apprenticeships or training

Our Commitment to Families

We work closely with families to support progress, wellbeing and successful transition into post-16 pathways. Learners receive personalised guidance, clear communication and consistent support from staff who know them well.